DEDICATION

There are no words which can express our feelings for one who has given such untiring service and loyal devotion to Fairview Township-Karns City Joint High School. As an expression of appreciation, the students wish to dedicate with humble and sincere devotion this yearbook to Mrs. Lois McCormick, and also to wish her a happy life in her retirement from the teaching service.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

SITTING: Earla Byers, Sue Logan. STANDING: Mr. F. Christy, Gary Weimer, Mr. G. McCormick, Larry Lentz, Mr. C. Hillard.

The Athletic Council consists of a girl and a boy from the Senior Class and a girl and boy from the Junior Class. During the year, they sponsor the Homecoming Dance and dances after the football and basketball games. Along with certain members of the faculty, they choose the cheerleaders. Whenever any problems arise within the athletic system, it is their job to solve them. At the end of the year, they have the Athletic Banquet at which they present awards to the participants of the various sports.

EIGHTH ROW: T. Daum, Mr. Nicaise.

This staff works very hard to compose, type, and distribute the news of the school each month. They are under the supervision of Mr. Nicaise and Mr. Ficca. All activities, both in and out of school, that are of interest to the student body are covered by reporters and turned into the editor, who this year was Carol Ferlein. All are to be congratulated on the fine job they have done.

HI-LITE REPORTERS

STANDING, Left to Right: J. Graham, L. Cogley, J. Green, L. Horneman, D. Jackson.

Any news occuring in the respective classes of these reporters is composed and handed to the editor for approval. They look for the behind-the-scene stories that are of interest to the students.

LIBRARY STAFF

PLAY

On November 17, 1961 at 8:00 p.m. the senior class, directed by Mrs. Anna Cummings, presented MISTER CO-ED, a three-act comedy by Ester E. Olson.

When Lotus Smith strides through the exclusive gates of Cedar Hill, a college for women, a wave of consternation sweeps across its hallowed campus and also affects the president, Eustacia Hayworth, and her professors--Miss Pooley and Miss Carr. Cedar Hill College had long been operating on a frayed shoestring and now was depending on Lotus's grandmother--the fabulously wealthy Cobina Colgate-Brewster--to supply a check for one hundred thousand dollars as soon as Lotus was enrolled. Trying to conceal his identity, Lotus, with the persuasion of Emily Manning, a spunky scholarship girl, consents to portray a girl until Mrs. Brewster returns to England. Due to the schemes and antics of Homer Quackenbush, the custodian, a happy ending follows the madcap moments of the revealing of Lotus as a boy. Cedar Hill gets a new "lease" on life, Lotus and Emily find each other, and Grandma Brewster finds herself "heading West" to buy a ranch for herself and her new "boss" the lovable, wily Homer.
